British subject addresses local students

TONY SPRAY talks to students at AMS about life in England.

The Appomattox Middle School PTA will meet Monday, April 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

The evening's program will be presented by the AMS music and art departments.

British Subject Visits A.M.S.

The students in the seventh grade at Appomattox Middle School were treated to a slide presentation and discussion of Great Britian by a man from London. On April 8 Mr. Tony Spray talked to students about life in England. Here is what he told us:

"My name is Tony Spray. I was born and brought up in a coal mining village near Nottingham in the center of England. I went to college in Newcastle-Upon-Tyne (the river) in the north. I taught in a Junior School (5-11 year olds), in Birmingham, England. I now teach in London in a big inner city school. The subject that I teach is Social Studies for 4th and 5th year students (that is 9th and 10th grades). The school is in Vensington about four miles from Buckingham Palace."

"I would say travelling is one of my best likes and so I have been to Sri Lanka, all of the Arab States, some of Africa, most of Europe, and the United States. Last year it was either India or the U.S. I decided it was time to see the states for real rather than via T.V. So I went from Miami to San Francisco. Now in 1983, I am travelling from Boston to North Carolina."

One of the interesting things that Mr. Spray told us was that in England Easter baskets are not given, but instead fairs come to the small villages. We at Appomattox Middle School truly enjoyed his visit and hope that he will be able to return. When we asked him about the schools of England and about how he felt about American schools, his comments follow:

"On my travels I stopped in Appomattox to visit a friend. This is the first time that I have seen an American School. At first sight there are many similarities, but I would have to return many times to distinguish the differences. This, for certain, was a very enjoyable experience. I enjoyed seeing the children in school. I think that they learned something about Britain and I certainly learned how pleasant and freindly Americans can be."

On behalf of the students of Appomattox Middle School, we would like to thank Mr. Spray for giving up part of his Easter break to visit with us and to tell us about life in England.

4-H Club News

Mrs. Gosey's 4-H Club

Mrs. Gosey's class had 4-H on Wednesday, March 16, 1983 at 10 a.m. Jennifer Roach opened the meeting. Todd Hipps led us in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of America. Mary Helen McLaughlin led us in the 4-H Pledge. Stacy Myrick and Tammie Starner led us in the game "Lost Child." Mr. Sweet told us about the old business and new business. The new business is 4-H presentations to be held March 26 at 9:30 a.m. at Appomattox Elementary School. 4-H Camp to be held July 4-8. Dairy Poster Contest and Wildlife feed patches.

The program was on citizenship.

Jennifer adjourned the meeting.

Miss Krulla's 4-H Club

Donna Franklin called the March 14th meeting to order. Earl Archer and Gary Booker led us in games. Patrick Lair led us in the Pledge to the American flag and the 4-H Pledge. Troy Davidson, Secretary, read the February minutes.

Mr. Sweet discussed things to remember about the upcoming presentations. Members purchased bluebird houses to assemble. Milk Poster Contest will be held in late May. Mr. Sweet talked about good citizens.

We played silent ball and the meeting was adjourned.

Four-Leaf Clover

The meeting was called to order by Karen Trent, president. After the opening formalities we moved right along into our program, working on presentations.

Jennifer Alvis was the first person Mrs. Mack gave the once-over to. Jennifer will be showing us how to incubate a duck egg.

Then Mrs. Mack tortured Heather Bryan, whose presentation is "The 'E.T.' of the Insect World", meaning the praying mantis.

The rest of us were smart enough not to bring our posters or even to have our plans. So this time, we were free from her brain-washing.

After giving Mrs. Mack a second chance to scold us, Karen finally adjourned the meeting.

Special thanks to the Stonewall Extension Homemakers, who are planning to sponsor a half scholarship to 4-H Camp for the 4-H'er of the year in the 4-Leaf-Clever-Club.

I guess special thanks is also in order for Mrs. Mack, who got us going on our presentations. It wasn't really torture.

4-H Club

Ms. Jamerson's fourth grade class held a 4-H club meeting Feb. 21, 1983. The president, Jason Carter, opened the meeting. Next, the American and 4-H pledges were said. The recreation leaders, Zaneta Moore and Jennifer Nash, led us through the game "Do-This--Do-That." The secretary, Susan Doss, read the minutes of the last meeting. Then we talked about the presentations. Mr. Sweet showed us posters other children did for their presentations.

The president then closed the meeting.

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

The Town of Pamplin will hold a public hearing on April 25, 1983 and on May 3, 1983 at 7:00 P.M. at the Pamplin Town Hall for the purpose of hearing written and oral comments from the public concerning the proposed annual budget for fiscal year 1983-84 and the use of Revenue Sharing funds as contained in that proposed budget, summarized below. General revenue sharing (GRS) is a program of general fiscal support from the federal government to state and local government with only limited federal requirements about how the money should be spent. Decisions on the use of these funds are made at the local level, by the government and people closest to local programs. The revenue sharing regulations require a hearing on the proposed use of these funds in relation to the overall budget before the budget is adopted each year.

All interested citizens, groups, senior citizens and organizations representing the interest of senior citizens are encouraged to attend and to submit comments.

A copy of this information, the entire proposed budget and additional background materials are available for public inspection on Tuesday and Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. at the Pamplin Town Office.
